

Appeal For Information

Police Appeal Following Collision In New Ash Green

Police are appealing for witnesses to a collision, which occurred on the junction of West Yoke Road and Chapel Wood Road in New Ash Green on Tuesday 10 January...

Sevenoaks and Swanley

Two people were seriously injured in the collision, which occurred at around 6.10am involving a Vauxhall Corsa and a red Ford Escort, where the Escort flipped over.

The passenger of the Ford had to be cut out of the vehicle by a team from Kent Fire and Rescue Service. Both the passenger and driver of the Ford were taken to Darent Valley Hospital to be treated for their injuries.

The driver of the Corsa sustained minor injuries for which he was treated at the scene. The road was closed until 10.30am to allow emergency services to operate and the road to be cleared of debris.

If anyone was witness to the collision or immediately prior to it, they are asked to contact Kent police on 101 quoting cad reference 10-0147.